Bill Boothe is the founder and lead consultant for The Boothe Group, LLC. He specializes in assisting private clubs, resorts and gated communities with the planning, evaluation, selection and implementation of computer technology. During the past thirty years, Bill has worked with more than 400 country, golf, yacht, city and athletic clubs, as well as many resorts and gated communities, to plan their technology future and implement appropriate solutions. Bill is a frequent speaker at national and regional education conferences for CMAA, NCA and HFTP, and has authored more than 80 articles for industry publications such as The Boardroom, Club Management and Club Director. Bill began his career in the private club industry as a Partner and Director of Club Consulting Services with RSM-US (formerly McGladrey), the nation's 5th largest accounting, tax and business consulting firm, where he managed a variety of consulting projects including IT strategic planning, software reengineering, software selection and implementation, and other technology consulting services for more than 20 years. He retired from RSM in 2010 and formed The Boothe Group to focus exclusively on software-related consulting for private clubs and gated communities. Bill's education includes a B.A. from the University of Virginia and an M.S. from Loyola University.
